

1. Is the deadline for submitting the documentation 24.05.2019?

According to the text of the Public Invitation - Call Article 3, the date 24.05.2019 is the initial deadline for submission of bids. After this deadline, any interested bidder may submit documentation for admission to the Qualification System until the end of the validity of the Public Invitation - Call.

2. How should the documents on the web-based platform be authenticated?

Pursuant to Article 6, the documents must be verified by the bidder with a stamp reading "faithful to the original", have a signature from the authorized person of the company and have a circular stamp from bidder and then be scanned and uploaded on a web-based platform.

3. Can the documents from the institutions be issued online?

Yes, but it must be printed and verified by the bidder with a stamp reading "faithful to the original", have a signature from the authorized person of the bidder, have a circular stamp from the bidder and then be scanned and uploaded on a web-based platform.

4. Can a Statement of Approved and Registered ENTSO-E Identification Code (EIC) be submit instead of Notice by AD MEPSO or foreign institutions on approved and registered ENTSO-E Identification Code (EIC)?

Yes, Bidder can submit a statement in which the ENTSO-E Identification Code (EIC) will be written. A statement is required to be issued by the bidder.

5. Will EVN Home provide a Company guarantee?

Yes EVN Home will provide a company guarantee and submit it at the conclusion of the Individual Contracts in accordance with the conditions that will be defined in Request for Bids for Electricity Procurement Issued to Qualified Bidders (RB).

6. Do documentation need to be submitted in paper form?

No documentation is submitted only on the web based platform.